Digital Self-Service: How do We Get There?

While many companies are aspiring to transition to digital self-service, this process is rarely an easy one. The March 10 meeting of the UWEBC Customer Service Peer Group focused on how companies can enhance their self-service capabilities and overcome related challenges. UWEBC members Alliant Energy, Great Lakes Educational Loan Services and Sub-Zero Group shared lessons learned from their experiences, and Genesys outlined a customer-centric approach for success with digital self-service initiatives.

Meet our newest member: KW2

We are excited to welcome the newest UWEBC member company, KW2, a certified women-owned business enterprise that offers full-service digital and marketing services. KW2, as one of Wisconsin’s longest-running agencies, has operated for over 35 years in the industry and has since left profound impacts in our community through the narratives they tell. Through creating innovative marketing strategies and providing unique solutions to an array of numerous societal challenges, KW2 has a mission to empower and improve the lives of many.
UWEBC Featured Member: Steve Moon from Colony Brands, Inc.

This month we are proud to feature one of our primary liaisons Steve Moon, Manager of Special Projects at Integrated Marketing Solutions, Inc., an affiliate company UWEB member company Colony Brands, Inc. He has been an active member of UWEB for about 20 years, almost as long as UWEB has been around! Fun fact: He was in the first Peer Group meeting we ever held.

To Steve, being a primary liaison means being the interface between UWEB and the member company. He likes describing his current liaison role as being a connector - making sure that the right people within his company are connected with UWEB and leveraging our offerings.

“This role exposed me to a lot of different areas of our company that maybe I wouldn’t have had exposure to. By being UWEB’s primary liaison for Colony Brands, I was able to expand my network internally and externally as I got to meet people I would never have met before.”
